HLB International, inspired around the world

HLB International is a leading global network of independent professional accounting firms and business advisers. We are present in 130 countries worldwide, with our member firms providing a comprehensive array of audit & accounting, tax and advisory services to a broad range of clients of all industry sectors.

A member of the International Federation of Accountants Forum of Firms, HLB International is committed to the highest quality standards in financial reporting and auditing practices with all our members meeting specific quality criteria both nationally and internationally.

With member firms well established in their markets, HLB International offers an ideal combination of local expertise and international skills. Our member firms support you as you grow regionally and globally, ensuring the same partner-led high-quality and personalised service wherever you operate.

HLB International is a member of the Forum of Firms, part of the International Federation of Accountants, and as such committed to the highest quality standards. Forum of Firms members voluntarily agree to meet quality requirements such as maintaining appropriate quality control standards in accordance with International Standards on Quality Control, and basing the conduct of transnational audits on International Standards on Auditing (ISA). We maintain an ISA-compliant audit manual and provide all the necessary training and support to our member firms.

Worldwide support, worldwide quality

HLB member firms dedicatedly assist you with your multinational business, working together to meet your international needs with customised solutions. We coordinate your cross-border business in a seamless manner, with close communication and partner-level service regardless of your size or location. With presence in 130 countries, our network covers all the main markets globally and combines our members' local expertise with a powerful international capability.

HLB International carries out a quality assurance review of all prospective members, and of all existing members on a regular basis in order to maintain the high standards of the network. This ensures all our members meet our membership criteria which include the ability to handle international assignments in audit as well as tax, business advisory and all services needed by a client operating multinationally.

HLB member firms are committed to a high-quality, efficient and cost-effective professional service to clients' multinational assignments. With one central point of contact who takes responsibility for the coordination of all aspects of the assignment and the support of HLB International's central office to monitor the communications process globally, every effort is made to enable you to effectively concentrate on your core business - while our members take care of the rest.

The close relations, shared values and trust between our members all contribute to the smooth running of your international business

Most of our member firms have specific structures in place to support your business seamlessly across borders, including dedicated country desks and the corresponding language facilities. HLB International, one of the first international audit networks to have entered the Greater China market in the mid-80s, also has a China Service at a global level with multiple China Desks worldwide.

HLB is a personalised and cohesive network whose success is based on the close, personal relationship between members. HLB professionals know each other personally, meeting regularly in our international, regional and local conferences, or taking part in our global staff exchange programme. The close relations, shared values and trust between our members all contribute to the smooth running of your business across borders.
